

Favorite Memory

Everyone has a favorite memory. The memory could be about anything. It could be about spending time with a family member. Or it could be about the best day at school. It could even be about a day spent looking for shapes in the clouds. It could be so many different things!

Write a new story about your favorite memory, including what the memory was about and why it was your favorite.

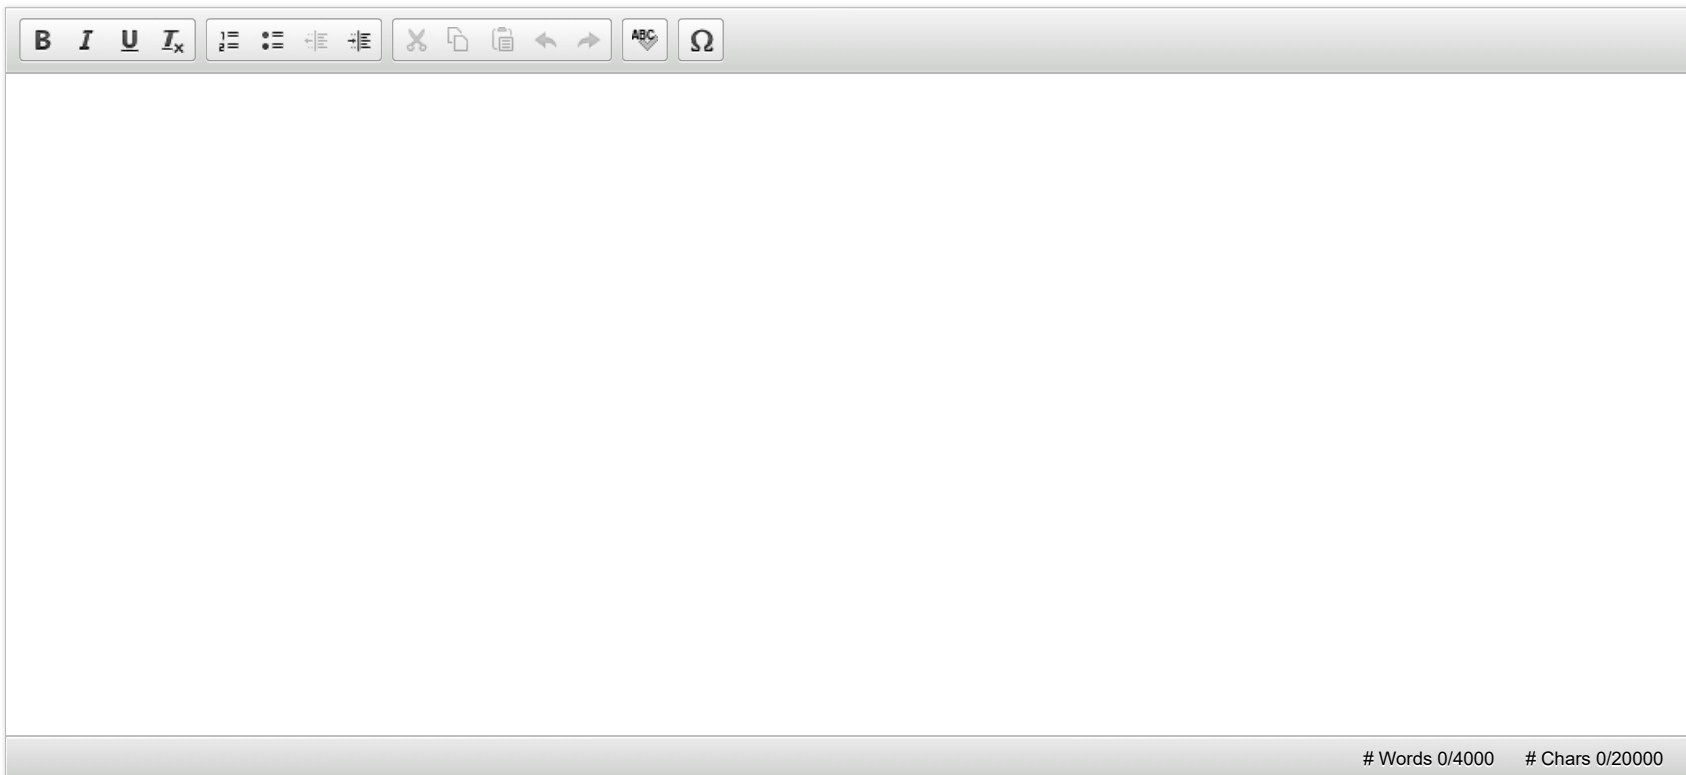

Manage your time carefully so you can

- plan
- write
- revise
- edit

Be sure to include

- a logical sequence of events
- a strong narrator and character development
- a descriptive setting

Your response should be in the form of a multiparagraph story. Write your story in the space provided.

The image shows a rich text editor interface. At the top, there is a toolbar with various icons for text formatting and editing. The icons include: Bold (B), Italic (I), Underline (U), Strikethrough (I_x), Bulleted List, Numbered List, Decrease Indent, Increase Indent, Cut, Copy, Paste, Undo, Redo, ABC (Text Color), and Omega (Ω). Below the toolbar is a large, empty text area for writing the story. At the bottom right of the text area, there is a status bar showing "# Words 0/4000" and "# Chars 0/20000".
