

Fun Times Ahead

It is fun to have something to look forward to. Sometimes it can be hard to wait for it to happen, though. For example, waiting for your grandparents to arrive for a visit can feel like it is taking years. It can also be really hard to wait for the big family vacation or for summer break to start. It is hard to be patient when you are waiting for the special moment to arrive.

Write a new story about a time you were waiting for something exciting to happen, including what you were waiting for and how you felt once the moment actually arrived.

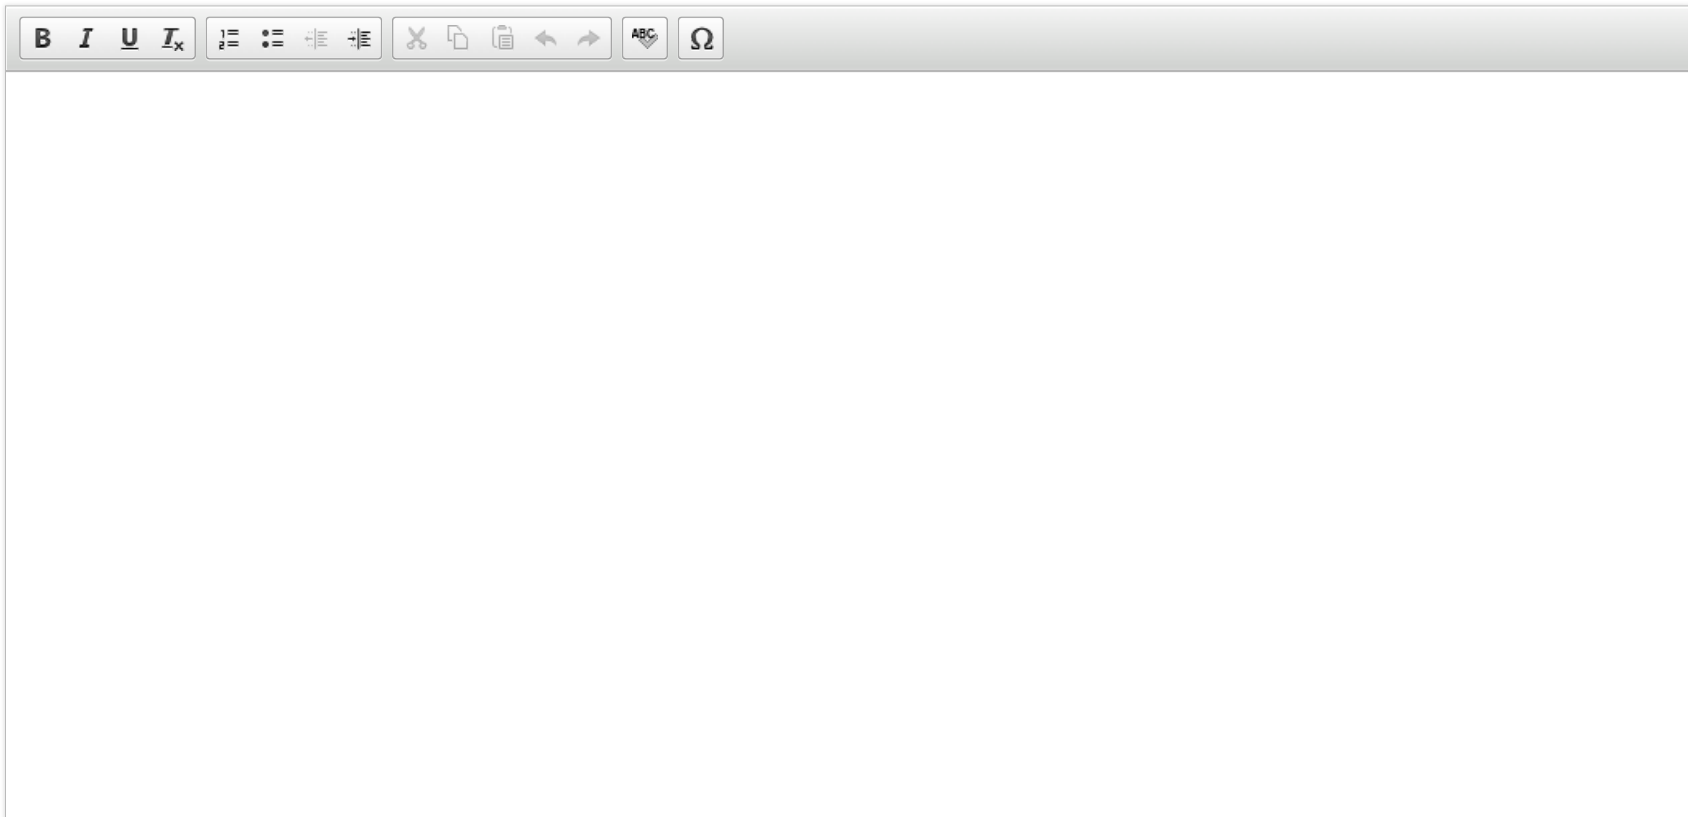

Manage your time carefully so you can

- plan
- write
- revise
- edit

Be sure to include

- a logical sequence of events
- a strong narrator and character development
- a descriptive setting

Your response should be in the form of a multiparagraph story. Write your story in the space provided.
