

Showing Responsibility

Sometimes we have to prove that we are responsible before we can get something we want. Many parents want their children to show that they can be responsible for taking care of a pet before they bring home that cute puppy or kitten. Before anyone can ride a bike on their own, they have to prove that they can ride responsibly. Many things in life require a lot of responsibility. We often have to demonstrate that we can be responsible before getting permission to do something.

Write a new story about a time you had to show responsibility to get something you wanted, including what it was that you wanted and what you had to do to get it.

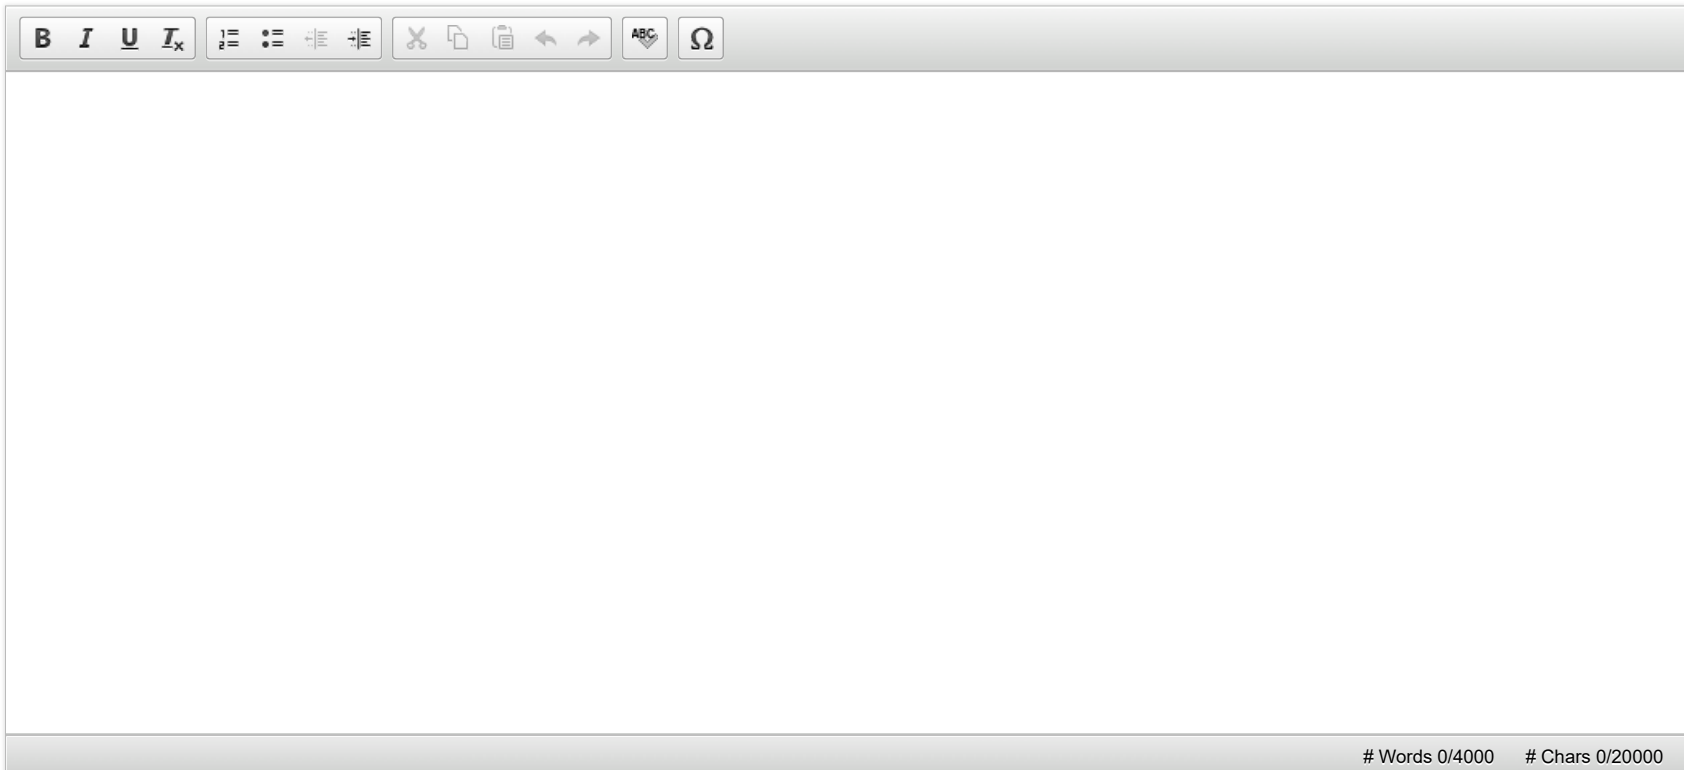

Manage your time carefully so you can

- plan
- write
- revise
- edit

Be sure to include

- a logical sequence of events
- a strong narrator and character development
- a descriptive setting

Your response should be in the form of a multiparagraph story. Write your story in the space provided.
